

Kate Atkinson Kaplan, AG95, A20P

Concord, MA

B.A., Sociology-Anthropology, Oberlin College, 1986; M.A., Urban and Environmental Policy, Tufts University, 1995

Work Experience:

Chief Advancement Officer, Two Ten Footwear Foundation, 2012–present; Marketing and Development Director, Jericho Road Project, 2009–2012; Nonprofit management and board development consultant, Kaplan Associates and Fortunato Consulting Group, 1999–2009; Director of Program Development and Department Administrator, Urban and Environmental Policy, Lincoln Filene Center and the Graduate School, Tufts University, 1987–1999

Tufts Volunteer Activities:

President, Tufts University Alumni Association (TUAA) 2014–2016; Executive Committee, Tufts Alumni Council, 2006–2018; co-chair, Ad Hoc Alumni Council Campaign Committee, 2016–present; Alumni Representative to Advancement Committee of Board of Trustees, 2009–present; Alumni Representative to the A&S Board of Advisors, 2014–2016; Parents Leadership Council, 2016–present; co-chair, Tufts Talks Boston, 2015 and 2017; member, Ad Hoc Strategic Planning Committee for 2010–2014 TUAA Strategic Plan; chair, Ad Hoc Strategic Planning Committee for 2014–2018 TUAA Strategic Plan; chair, 2013 Alumni Leadership Summit Planning Committee; member, 2015 Leadership Summit Planning Committee and host committee; member, TUAA Development Committee, 2006–2011; member, TUAA Citizenship and Public Service Committee, 2005–2008; member, Graduate School Advisory Board 2002–2004; member, Tufts Alumni Council, 2000–present

Non-Tufts Volunteer Activities:

Co-leader, Girl Scout Troop 72691, 2005–present; member, Advisory Board, Robbins House, 2013–present; president, The Concord Scout House, 2002–2008; grant reviewer, Susan G. Komen for the Cure, 2010 and 2011; class agent, Oberlin College, 2004–2006; chair, Volunteer Allocations Committee, United Way of Massachusetts Bay, 2000–2005

Tufts Family:

Daughter, Sophia, A20